Lorena from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk H. D. L. Webster and J. P. Webster G G7 C The years creep slowly by, Lo rena D7 G The snow is on the grass again; G7 С The sun's low down the sky, Lo rena, D7 G The frost gleams where the flow'rs have been. Em Am But the heart throbs on as warmly now, B7 Em As when the summer days were nigh; D7 G7 G C Oh! the sun can never dip so low, D7 G A-down affection's cloudless sky. A hundred months have passed, Lorena, Since last I held that hand in mine, And felt the pulse beat fast, Lorena, Though mine beat faster far than thine. A hundred months, 'twas flowery May, When up the hilly slope we climbed, To watch the dying of the day, And hear the distant church bells chime. We loved each other then, Lorena, More than we ever dared to tell;

More than we ever dared to tell; And what we might have been, Lorena, Had but our lovings prospered well-But then, 'tis part, the years are gone, I'll not call up their shadowy forms; I'll say to them, "Lost years, sleep on! Sleep on! nor heed life's pelting storms.

The story of that past, Lorena, Alas! I care not to repeat, The hopes that could not last, Lorena, They lived, but only lived to cheat. I would not cause e'en one regret To rankle in your bosom now; For "if we try, we may forget," Were words of thine long years ago.

Yes, these were words of thine, Lorena, They burn within my memory, yet; They touched some tender chords, Lorena, Which thrill and tremble with regret. 'Twas not thy woman's heart that spoke; Thy heart was always true to me; A duty, stern and pressing, broke The tie which linked my soul with thee.

It matters little now, Lorena, The past is in the eternal past; Our heads will soon lie low, Lorena, Life's tide is ebbing out so fast. There is a Future! O, thank God! Of life this is so small a part!
